About The Program

Established in 1994, Leadership Blair County cultivates, develops, and nurtures the potential leaders within our community. The program educates and motivates the area's promising leaders and prepares them for service to our community in a variety of important roles.

Sessions

Through a series of sessions, often using the community itself for its classroom, the program allows class participants to exchange ideas and information with established leaders and experts from many fields.

Sessions

- Regional Heritage
- Local Government
- Human Services
- Diversity
- Economic Development
- Justice
- Vision & Strategic Planning

Alumni Network

Future leaders gain first-hand experience about critical issues as they develop the skills necessary to become an effective community leader. Leadership Blair County boasts over 600 graduates.

Alumni Network

Notable businesses that support the program annually include:

- American Eagle Paper Mill
- Blair Companies
- NPC
- Reliance Bank
- Sheetz
- Ward Transport & Logistics

Alumni Network

Graduating members have the opportunity to join the LBC Alumni Network. They raise money for local projects, offer grants to local non-profits, and so much more.

Testimonials

Our company is proud to sponsor an employee for Leadership Blair County every year, and we make it a priority for all of our leaders to experience this program. Leadership Blair County provides an incredible learning opportunity that not only strengthens individual leadership skills but also shapes the future of our community. We value how the program blends the heritage of our past, the strength of our people, and the hope for our future. It's an investment in both our team and Blair County, and we couldn't be more supportive of its mission. – Blair Companies

Community Benefit

Every class is tasked with planning and executing a project that benefits a 501c-3 nonprofit organization based in Blair County. A check is frequently presented to the selected charity at graduation. Some recent recipients include Easter For Eli, Booker T. Washington, and The Nehemiah Project.
